

Good luck Wanderers

By Colin Simpson

WYCOMBE Wanderers' pre-season training is now well under way as the players prepare for their first full year under manager Mike Keen.

The squad of about 25 players has been going through its paces at Bisham Abbey.

Mike hopes to strengthen his team before the Berger Isthmian League Premier Division season kicks off on August 16.

Russell Ashenden, who can play in either midfield or defence, has been training with Wycombe with a possible view to signing.

Ashenden was given a free transfer at the end of last season by Northampton, where he played during Mike Keen's spell as manager there.

Two pre-season friendlies have been arranged by Wycombe.

On August 9 they play Weymouth at home, and on the 12th they meet Aylesbury United, also at home.

The Wanderers' opening league game is against newly promoted Leytonstone and Ilford at home.
